

Great offer available for HRi clients...

Helping our clients get the funding they need today to succeed tomorrow.

HRi clients often find that they have a need for extra cash. Sometimes this need arises from an unexpected or unforeseen event. Other times it may come from taking on additional business. However it happens, the need for working capital occurs suddenly and finding access to money quickly when you need it can be challenging.

HRi succeeds when our clients succeed!

By having access to working capital, our clients now have a way to even out their cash-flow when they need it. Funding is fast and simple — HRi clients are “pre-qualified” for funding because they are our clients and both of us have built a mutual level of trust and desire to succeed.

The process is easy. There’s no written application or underwriting process. A phone interview is all that’s needed to qualify. Once qualified, it’s good for 1-year so you can contact us anytime for any financial reason and obtain funding.

Our fundings are unique because there is:

- NO collateral required
- NO lien applied
- NO personal guarantee
- NO security
- NO tax returns
- NO credit checks
- NO written application
